Proposed North Carolina TBI Neurobehavioral System of Care

Secure SA/MH Programs with Involuntary Commitment

Neurobehavioral Unit

Residential Options

Skilled Nursing Facilities Community Residential Programs Group Homes Adult Care Homes

Case Management

ER/Hospital Treatment

Outpatient Treatment

- Medication Management
- Behavior Management
- Rehabilitation
- Referrals to Rehabilitation Therapies as needed

Day Programs

- Day Treatment
- Clubhouses

Respite

- Facility Based
- In Home Respite Services

Crisis Services

- Facility Based Crisis
- Mobile Crisis
- In Home (same as mobile crisis?)

Links to Primary Care and Medication Management across all settings

- Office Based
- Telemedicine

Military Culture and TBI Training

To Existing and

New Providers

Current Resources

AHEC
BIANC
DMH/DD/SAS
DOD
DVBIC
EMT
POLICE/PRISONS
Psychiatric Hospitals

Needs to be provided to all programs and systems that will provide services to this population

Cognitive and Behavioral Interventions

- Identified Evidence Based Practices across all settings
 - Acute
 - Residential
 - o In-Home

In Home Supports

- Activities of Daily Living
- Caregiver Respite
- Transportation Assistance
- Assistive Technology
- Peer Support Groups for Families/Individuals
- Therapeutic Interventions Training
- Personal Care

Vocational Rehabilitation

- Training
- Supportive Employment Services

Community and Family Education

- Financial Planning Assistance
- Transition/Lifecare Planning Assistance

Community Resources

- Community College Programs
- University Programs
- First In Families
- TBI Point of Contact at LME-MCO
- Rehabilitation Services in the Community
- Educational Programs in the Community

Natural Supports

- Family
- Friends
- Church
- Civic Organizations
- Veterans Organizations
- Online Communities
- Family Support Networks